

MEDINA JULY 4TH PARADE REGISTRATION 2023

The City of Medina invites you to participate in our July 4th Parade. Each entry in the parade is encouraged to display the American flag.

The parade will be staged in the Medina High School parking lot on East Union Street (across the street from Sidney Fenn Elementary School).

There will be assigned rows for all participants and organizations pre-registered for the parade. Row assignments will be given to each participant the day of the parade. No organization or person will be denied the ability to participate.

The parade will begin promptly at 4:00 PM from the High School parking lot, headed south on Spring Grove, then west on Liberty and around the square. The parade will proceed to the Medina Library driveway and will end in the Garfield School parking lot. For safety purposes, no candy or other objects can be thrown from moving vehicles.
