City of Medina 2024 Annual Report Available

The City of Medina is pleased to present the 2024 Annual Year End Report. Several major projects were completed, the city continued to make advancements with technology, our business community remains strong, and we celebrated a once-in-a-lifetime solar eclipse over Medina. The report includes a letter from Mayor Hanwell that highlights departmental accomplishments, followed by more detailed individual reports prepared by the department heads. The public can review a hard copy of the report in either the Mayor's office or in the City Council office. You can also review the 2024 Annual Report online by clicking HERE.

Good Citizen Award Presented to Summer Gaede

Four-year-old Summer Gaede learned about litter in preschool and she took that lesson to heart. She now walks around her Medina neighborhood wearing plastic gloves and carrying a trash bag to pick up litter. Mayor Hanwell presented Summer with a "Good Citizen's Award" at the City Council meeting on March 10. Pictured with the Mayor and Summer are her proud parents, Kelsey and Seth Gaede.
