Two Lights for Tomorrow - Tonight at 8:30, Medina Square

Join the good people of Medina as we take a trip back in time to 1775, and commemorate the April 18, 1775 ride of Paul Revere. Bring your lantern and your lawn chair for this family friendly event. Meet Miss Sybil Ludington, Mr. Williams Dawes, and Mr. Paul Revere and even get your photo taken with them. You will be part of a page from the history books, and can learn about what really happened that night leading up the Revolutionary War.

Medina Bike Rodeo - May 7, 6 pm to 8pm, Ray Mellert Park

Mark your calendars, and bring your bike, your helmet, and your best pedal power! Hosted to celebrate the 2025 National Bike to School Day, there will be bicycle races, obstacle courses, on-site inspections and registration, safety tips, raffle prizes, and free water bottles while supplies last. There will be a DJ and food available for purchase.

Main Street Medina Hosts Small Business Workshop - May 6, 8 to 10 am

Join Main Street Medina for the second in a series of Small Business Workshops on Tuesday, May 6, from 8 am to 10 am, in the City Hall Lower Level Conference Room. The topic is "Strategies for Hiring, Training, and Retaining a Strong Workforce" with presenter, Janice Jokkel of The Biz Hive. The workshop is free and breakfast options are available.
