Employment Opportunity with Feeding Medina County

Feeding Medina County (FMC) is seeking a dynamic, highly organized Manager of Engagement to lead their fundraising events, marketing efforts, and community engagement initiatives. This role is essential to advancing FMC's mission of reducing food insecurity across Medina County. If you are passionate about fighting hunger, dependable, highly-organized, and people-centered, with event planning experience, Feeding Medina County wants to hear from you. You will work in a dynamic and fast-paced environment and be responsible for all aspects of our special events and marketing efforts. This is a full-time position; working from the FMC warehouse in Medina, with local travel. There is a limited opportunity to work from home. The Manager of Engagement plans and manages all major FMC events, oversees marketing and social media, supports donor stewardship, and assists with grant writing and reporting. This role collaborates closely with staff, volunteers, board members, and community partners to increase awareness, strengthen donor relationships, and drive fundraising success.
