There will be quiet music and no loud noises, such as revving engines, sirens, or horns. Beginning at 10:00 am you can take a free ride in the Old Phoenix Stagecoach. Food trucks will also be available. To register your truck, click HERE. This program is sponsored by Sandridge Crafted Foods, Fire-Dex, Huntington Bank, and Lloyd's Towing.

Two New Businesses Open in Downtown Medina

Maureen Dabbieri Allstate Agency: After a complete first floor remodel of this early 20th century building, that uncovered some interesting finds, Maureen Dabbieri has relocated her Allstate Agency office to 107 West Liberty Street. Stop in to meet her, see her spectacular mural, and learn about the history of the building. Learn more about Maureen Dabbieri Allstate Agency HERE.

Off The Wagon: Owner Michelle Sahr has opened the third location of Off The Wagon, a shop where you will find funny and novel gifts for all occasions, toys, and games. I'm sure you know someone who would love to receive Fried Chicken Candy or Pickle Candy for Valentines Day! Off the Wagon is located at 101 Public Square. Click HERE to learn more.

Medina Bee Park Art Contest

Main Street Medina is seeking original art for a first-of-its-kind large format outdoor installation at the new Bee Park on the west side of the building at 380 South Broadway. The selected design will be enlarged onto a 30' by 20' mesh banner and displayed on the wall. Applications and concepts are due by 5 pm on Monday, March 30, 2026. Art Contest Rules and Application Form can be found HERE. Questions? Call 330-722-6186.
